[Tanukikoji area] Edition

The "Sapporo Burari Techo" was created by members affiliated with tourism business in Sapporo who gathered under the name "Sapporo Concierge." For over six months, members held workshops, split into groups by area and held numerous discussions. They imagined they were tourists and actually walked the streets of towns and cities in search of appeal and charm they wished to convey to others, and compiled their findings into this handbook. The "Sapporo Burari Techo" has carefully selected attractive stores, shops, and more that one would find if living in Sapporo, and incorporated these into the various courses introduced, so visitors can be excited as they venture around Sapporo to discover the wonders it has to offer. It is our hope that you will discover and enjoy new and unordinary charm of Sapporo.

Tanukikoji Market

Tanukikoji Market is located on the south side of Tanukikoji 6-chome. It was established in the early Showa era. In the past, there used to be many stores lined both sides of the aisle selling merchandise face-to-face, but now only a fresh fish store and a fruit and vegetable store remain. Small restaurants have been added little by little, blending the old with the new and creating a unique atmosphere. The variety of restaurants includes "Sushi Shimokura," Robata-yaki (Robata grill) "Menme," "Kirin" (dumplings and xiaolongbao), "Gon" (soba noodles and a la carte dishes), "Matsuri Sushi" (stand-up-eating), "Jingisukanya Miyashita Shoten," and many more.

Taiyo Building

The retro-style Tanukikoji 8-chome, where the shopping arcade ends , is commonly known as "Tanu Hachi." 2 The Taiyo Building, a landmark of Tanu Hachi, is also known as a gourmet building that houses unique and talented restaurants. On the basement level, there are Chinese restaurants "Chagetsusai" and "Sushi node", beer and whiskey restaurant "3 Maltheads", and on the second floor, bistro "gaucher", Japanese restaurant "Kokon Yamahisa", Italian restaurant "teatro di massa", oden restaurant "BUNJIRO", and many more.
