Sapporo creates the next age.
 The city is filled with “something good,”
 namely, a free spirit and creativity to explore and clear the untrodden way to the future.

People living in Hokkaido are known for their open-mindedness. This quality is strongly connected to Hokkaido’s history up to the present. In Hokkaido, personal exchanges involving the crossing of oceans have continued for a long time. In the Meiji era, it was foreigners who introduced advanced urban development concepts. Sapporo Style is a brand lining up “something good” nurtured by the free spirit unique to Sapporo, a city with a rich history fueled by generously absorbing different cultures and new things.

What is Sapporo like?

Sapporo, located in Hokkaido in northern Japan, is a large city with a population of about 1.95 million people. Urban features and nature coexist in Sapporo, which includes virgin forests and other lush green areas, while salmon-spawning rivers flow through its central area. Since manufacturers, design firms, distribution companies and other business entities are concentrated in a compact area, these specialists in their own fields have opportunities to interact and sometimes jointly create something new. The four distinct seasons form another attraction of Sapporo – the only city in the world where some 1.95 million people live in an area where the total annual snowfall exceeds a depth of six meters.

*The new certification period is for 2 years. After that, when the license is renewed, the certification period will be extended for next 5 years.
 *The authentication reason is posted for each new and renewal certified products in 2021.

GET GENUINE

[Sapporo × genuine article]

Distinct personalities abound in Sapporo, a city with a large population of 1.97 million, including many who have moved from elsewhere in Hokkaido and Japan. The people who live here are working hard day by day to offer “something good.” Each article they produce is of top quality. These articles, which could not be created elsewhere in the world, add richness and comfort to our daily lives.

An aromatic pendant brightens up winter.

03 Tin Aroma Style Pendant Series

The aromatic pendant brightening up the winter of northern region can be enjoyed by dripping essential oils on it. There are two type of pendant charms, snowflake, and “lucky lilac” believed to bring happiness when you find five petals. The 100% pure tin pendant charms made with advanced casting technique are metal but soft so you can make a curve and take it with your favorite fragrance.

With the desire to let as many people as possible know the comfort of real plant fragrances, we produce products using only 100% natural fragrances, without using synthetic fragrances. We create our products one by one with the utmost.
