

Cover design

This is a work by Yuri Sawade, a fourth year student on the Media Design Course of the School of Design at Sapporo City University.

The overall design features a streetcar, an eye-catching symbol of Sapporo, and people working together for city development.

The background pattern, which symbolizes light spreading out, was made to represent a bright future for Hokkaido.

The overall design represents the hope that residents' innovative ideas will help to enhance the attractive features of Sapporo and Hokkaido and create new values.
