

Sapporo School Expense Assistance Application Procedure

The Application Form included

School Expense Assistance is a system that provides financial support to households that are having difficulties paying for expenses for compulsory education such as school supplies. Households whose income is less than the specified amount set by the City are eligible. If you wish to receive this assistance, please read the explanation below and submit an application.

1. Eligible children

- Children who are enrolled in an elementary school or a junior high school as of October 2024.
- Children who will enroll in an elementary school in April 2025.

Please regard the primary part of compulsory education schools as elementary school, and the secondary part of compulsory education schools or the first part of secondary education schools as junior high school.

2. Applicable requirements (for receiving school expense assistance)

Households living in Sapporo City that fall under any of the following categories A-F (excluding households receiving welfare assistance [seikatsu hogo])

	Applicable requirements				Notes
A	The household's welfare assistance (seikatsu hogo) was cancelled or suspended in or after October 2023.				Excluding cases where the household members have changed from the time when the welfare assistance was received.
B	The household is receiving a child-care allowance (Jido Fuyo Teate) or has received a child-care allowance after November 2023.				The latter case is limited to the case where household members have not changed etc. from the time when the child-care allowance was received.
C	The municipal tax of all members of the household excluding high school students and younger members (*1) was non-taxable or full exempted in FY 2024.
D	The total income of all members of the household excluding high school students and younger members (*1) in 2023 was under the amounts listed below.				If the household includes members who paid high medical expenses (*2) or are unemployed (*3), a certain amount may be deducted from the total amount of the household income.
	No. of members of household	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
	Upper limits for net income (*4)	¥1,860,000	¥2,320,000	¥2,520,000	¥2,880,000	¥3,410,000	¥4,100,000	¥4,800,000	¥5,580,000
	Approximate gross salary (*5)	Roughly ¥2,770,000	Roughly ¥3,430,000	Roughly ¥3,690,000	Roughly ¥4,140,000	Roughly ¥4,800,000	Roughly ¥5,670,000	Roughly ¥6,540,000	Roughly ¥7,410,000
E	In or after FY 2023, individual enterprise tax has been fully exempted due to disasters such as storms, floods, earthquakes, and fires.
F	The household has received a loan for welfare expenses (e.g., expenses necessary to perform work, expenses necessary for skill acquisition, expenses necessary for preparation) from the local Social Welfare Council in or after FY 2023.

(*1) If the person who supports the household is not living with the family due to job transfer or with the intention of getting a divorce, the person is still considered a member of household even if the place of residence is different. Persons who live together are considered members of the household even if they do not share the household budget or their resident registration is different. If in the middle of divorce mediation or trial, it may be possible not to consider the spouse as a member of the same household.

(*2) Medical expenses here are limited to those eligible for deduction from income tax (except in special cases). Expenses for health checkups and vaccinations cannot be included.

- (*3) Limited to those who are unemployed or have no income at the time of application. Those who have received a special lump sum payment for employment insurance are not eligible.
- (*4) “Income” refers to the amount obtained by subtracting essential expenses from earnings. In case of a salary, it is not a paid amount but an amount after deduction of essential expenses from the salary.
- (*5) These amounts are provided only as a guide. Note that the amount of income may vary depending on the number of people who have earnings and the amount of earnings.

3. How to apply

Please apply using one of the following methods;

(1) Online Application

Please apply using the QR code on the last page or through the Sapporo City’s HP.

[Items to prepare] E-mail address, image data to show you bank account information (such as a banknote or cash card).

*Only required for some applicants: Documents proving that you meet the eligibility (please refer to item 5 below)

(2) Written Application

Please submit the application form and other necessary documents to the school your child is attending.

*For households with children attending different schools (such as elementary and junior high schools), please submit to only one of the schools.

[Items to prepare] Application form, a copy of your banknote or cash card that shows your bank account information.

*Only required for some applicants: Documents proving that you meet the eligibility (please refer to item 5 below)

4. Application deadline

Application deadline: August 30 (Wed.), 2024 (※)

Note: April 30 (Wed.), 2025 for households that will apply for only one child who is expected to enroll in elementary school in April 2025

※Applications are also accepted after the above deadline, but as a general rule, approval will be granted from the month of application. Therefore, there may be items for which the payment amount is prorated by month or items for which you will not receive payments. Additionally, applications are accepted at any time if there are changes in your household's financial situation due to reasons such as divorce or unemployment.

5. Examination method

Among the information required for examination, Sapporo City Board of Education will obtain information on welfare assistance, child-care allowance (Jido Fuyo Teate), income and tax amounts directly from the concerned departments of Sapporo City. If you do not give consent for this, contact the Board of Education (School Expense Assistance Section: Tel. 011-211-3851) in advance. If you do not give consent, you cannot apply online and the certificates shown in the table below must be submitted.

Please note that even if you have given consent, you may still have to submit certificates in case the necessary information cannot be obtained from the City, or the City does not have necessary information.

Categories (see 2 above)	Persons/households that need to attach certificates	Required certificates (Copies are acceptable.)
A	A household that received welfare assistance under the local government other than Sapporo	Notification of decision to abolish welfare assistance
B	Persons whose information on the application of Child-care allowance (Jido Fuyo Teate) cannot be obtained from Sapporo City	Child-care Allowance Certificate
C or D	Persons whose income/tax information is not with Sapporo City such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Those who moved to Sapporo from outside Sapporo after January 2024 • Those who do not have a resident registration in Sapporo as of January 2024 • Those who have not filed residence tax 	Any of the following: income certificate; special collection tax amount determination (change) notice; or detailed statement of resident tax for FY2024
	Persons who are in the process of divorce mediation or trial with a spouse who is not regarded as a member of the same household and therefore need to apply for the special exception	Documents certifying that the parents are in divorce mediation or trial (documents from the court, lawyer's mandate contract, etc.)
D	Households whose income exceeds the limit, but by deducting the medical expenses paid at hospitals, the income is within the set limit.	Documents that certify the medical expense (notice of medical expenses, receipts, copy of tax return form (receipts of medical fee exception), etc.)
	Households whose income actually exceeds the limit, but have a family member who lost a job and is currently unemployed, and by regarding that his/her income is zero yen, the income is within the set limit.	Documents certifying the job loss (documentation of unemployment, employment insurance qualification, resignation certificate, etc.)
A – D in Common	Those who do not give consent for the Board of Education to obtain necessary information directly from Sapporo City.	(The above certificates according to the relevant category)
E • F	All households that fall under category E or F	Documents certifying that the household meets applicable requirements

*1) Those who have not filed residence tax may need to do so to receive an income certificate.

Please ask at the department in charge of resident tax in your city. If you live in Sapporo, ask the city tax offices that have jurisdiction over your residence area.

*2) Copies of withholding tax slips, salary certificates, pay slips and tax return forms cannot be used in principle.

6. How to fill out the application form

The application form has two sides. Make sure you fill out the back side as well (see instructions below).

Front side

Upon application, you are required to agree with all of 1 to 5. Please check the contents.
